

Cookie Policy

At Zunded, we want to be open and transparent about our use of cookies and what they mean to you. Some of the cookies we use are essential to the functionality of our website, but there are also cookies that you can disable or block.

We aim to provide you with as much information as possible about the cookies we use so that you can make an informed decision about what you want to share with us.

If you have any further questions or comments, please do not hesitate to Contact us using admin@zunded.net.

On your computer, cookies are managed by your web browser, so we will ask you for your choice regarding the cookie policy on each of your devices and web browsers.

What are cookies?

A cookie is a small file that is stored on your computer or mobile device. A cookie has a unique ID assigned to your device, allowing the website to remember your actions and settings (such as location, language, font size and other display settings) for a period of time. This way, you don't have to re-enter the information every time you return to the site or browse from one page to another. Cookies can also help improve your browsing experience.

Not all cookies contain personal data, but when they do we treat that data in accordance with our privacy policy. We also treat information from cookies as personal data if it is associated with your account or other contact information.

For further information visit www.aboutcookies.org.

Blocking Cookies

You can set your browser not to accept cookies and the above website tells you how to remove cookies from your browser. However if you do so in a few cases some of our website features may not function as a result.

Cookie Policy

You can configure your browser to accept all cookies, reject all cookies, or notify you when a cookie is set. If you wish to withdraw your consent to our use of cookies on this Site, or if you wish to delete or control the placing of cookies on your computer, you can also change your browser settings to block cookies or to alert you when cookies are being sent to your device. There are a number of ways to manage cookies. Please refer to your browser instructions or help screen to learn more about how to adjust or modify your browser settings at: Internet Explorer , Chrome, Firefox, Safari

If you disable the cookies that the Site uses, this may impact your experience while on the Site. You can also delete cookies already stored on your computer. Again, doing this may have a negative impact on the usability of many websites. If you disable the cookies that the Site uses, this may impact your experience while on the Site. You can also delete cookies already stored on your computer. Doing this may have a negative impact on the usability of many websites.

Types of cookies

There are two main types of cookies: persistent cookies and session cookies. Persistent cookies remain on your device until they are manually or automatically deleted. Session cookies remain on your device until you close your browser, which deletes them automatically.

Why do we use cookies?

There are a few possible reasons why we use cookies:

- Cookies that are absolutely necessary for the website to work and for you to use the services we offer;
- Cookies that collect data related to the use of our website and its performance. We use this information to improve our online products and services;
- Cookies that we use to personalise and optimise your experience on our website. These cookies store information about your choices such as text size, language and screen resolution.
- Cookies placed by third parties for advanced services (e.g. social media cookies) or for advertising purposes.

Cookie Policy

Essential cookies

These are cookies that we need in order to provide you with a properly functioning website and to enable you to use the homepage we provide.

Analytical and performance cookies

These cookies help us measure traffic to individual pages on the homepage to determine which areas of our website have been visited. We use this to identify a visitor's habits so that we can improve our online products and services. We may log IP addresses (the electronic addresses of computers connected to the Internet) to analyse trends, administer the website, track users' movements and gather broad demographic information.

These cookies are not essential to the website and we will therefore ask for your consent before activating these cookies. You can withdraw your consent at any time.

The list below shows the cookies we have installed that are not strictly necessary and require your consent.

Facebook Conversion Tracking Pixel

This tool allows us to track the actions of users after they have been redirected to a provider website after clicking on a Facebook ad. This allows us to track the effectiveness of Facebook ads for statistical and market research purposes. The data collected remains anonymous. This means that we cannot see an individual user's personal data. However, the collected data is stored and processed by Facebook. We inform you about this according to our information. Facebook is able to connect the data to your Facebook account and use the data for their own advertising purposes, in accordance with Facebook's privacy policy.

Facebook Conversion Tracking also allows Facebook and its partners to show you ads on and off

Facebook. In addition, a cookie is stored on your computer for these purposes. By using the website, you agree to the data of the Facebook pixel integration.

Google Analytics

This website uses Google Analytics. On behalf of the operator of this website, Google will evaluate your use of the website in order to compile reports on website activity and to provide the website operator with further services relating to website activity and internet usage.

Google Analytics uses so-called "cookies", text files that are stored on your computer. The information generated by the cookie about your use of this website is usually transmitted to a Google server in the USA and stored there. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser, however please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website. You can also prevent the collection of data generated by the cookie and related to your use of the website (including your IP address) to Google and the processing of this data by Google by downloading and installing the browser add-on. If you click here, an opt-out cookie will be set to prevent future collection of your data when visiting this website: Privacy Center.

In addition, we use Google Conversion Tracking in connection with Google Analytics. This enables us to record the behaviour of our website visitors. We are also shown how many clicks on advertisements from external sources have led to our website. To opt out of being tracked by Google Analytics across all websites visit <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.

Tawk.to

This is a live chat software. The chat is integrated in the source code. This is made possible by a script. By using the chat, you automatically use the services of Tawk.to. The data collected includes: Chat history, IP address at the time of the chat and country of origin. This data is not passed on to third parties and is used solely for protection and internal statistics. The data is not used to identify you personally. They are not stored. It will be deleted after the chat. For the purpose and scope of the data collection and the further processing and use of the data by Tawk.to, as well as your rights in this regard and setting options for protecting your privacy,
